Perhaps the interpreter question on the survey could ask what type of interpreter is needed-- language, ASL, other. Could also be helpful to add a disability accessibility question in the housing section.

I have to jump off at 1245. Please let me know if you need anything.

Linda Dennis

12:46 PM

people aren't identifying themselves for the survey, right?

You

12:46 PM

right

Bernard Keels

12:49 PM

It is important to distinguish our survey from the everyday generic survey. The critical need for the information to empower and give voice to those underserved.

Sandy Bartlett

12:58 PM

Lauren - one other question, have any clients brought their family members home and out of residential housing

Lauren Kallins

12:58 PM

Yes!!

Linda Dennis

1:00 PM

Our clients would need stamped envelop!!!

Lauren Kallins

1:05 PM

Has there been discussion about translating the survey into Spanish and/or other languages?

Nicholas Katz

1:06 PM

We absolutely need to do that

Jessica Emerson

1:06 PM

I had the same question!!

Bernard Keels

1:06 PM

I agree.

Linda Dennis

1:06 PM

Gotta jump off. WE will help figure out how to get AA Co to represent!!!
